

For the complete 2012 Civic Health Index
visit <http://tinyurl.com/12MI-CHI> or use this QR Code

MNA is affiliated with Michigan Campus Compact and Volunteer Centers of Michigan.

Michigan Nonprofit Association

Michigan's Civic Health

Measuring How Our Citizens Engage in Giving and Volunteering

Through long standing traditions of service and philanthropy, Michigan citizens have demonstrated the true strength our state possesses when we all work together for the common good. As reported in the 2012 Michigan Civic Health Index, Michigan residents engaged in giving and volunteering in the following ways in 2011.

Volunteerism

2,000,000 +

Michigan residents volunteered

233,000,000 + hours

served by Michigan volunteers

94% Michigan volunteers gave 20+ hours

Michigan's volunteer service was valued at $5.1 billion

Giving Beliefs

Perspective on charitable organizations...

there is a greater need for these organizations today than in the past.

90%

are more effective now than five years ago and are honest and ethical in the use of donated funds.

74%

play a major role in making our communities better

89.7%

Philanthropy

86.8% of households contributed money, property or both to charitable nonprofit organizations

73.4%
report they will contribute in the same way in 2013

32%
report they give more money to charitable organizations where they also volunteer

As we continue to address community needs across the state, the philanthropic and volunteerism needs of our state's nonprofits and community organizations is greater than ever. Find a way to give your time and talents in 2013. Visit www.volunteermichigan.org.

Source: Additional information about the data above, as well as other factors of Michigan's civic engagement can be found in the complete Michigan Civic Health Index. The Michigan Civic Health Index, published jointly by the Michigan Nonprofit Association, Michigan Community Service Commission, and Council of Michigan Foundations, can be found at <http://tinyurl.com/12MI-CHI>.